Portions, Garlic Knots make Luna in Stuart an institution

Menu

Gigantic portions of everything Italian-pizza, hot subs, pasta and baked dishes.

Atmosphere

Luna is an institution in downtown Stuart, with its yellow facade, sidewalk tables and takeout window.

Our Favorite Food/Price

I was skeptical about a pizza with toppings that include string beans, peas and carrots, but the Luna veggie pizza ($20.45 for a 16-inch) surprised me. The vegetables, which also include chopped cauliflower, broccoli and zucchini, are sauteed in garlic with fresh spinach and smothered with mozzarella. We also loved the pasta primavera ($15.95), a giant heap of fresh vegetables over pasta.

Reason to Go

The garlic knots. Luna is famous for the steaming hot knots, and rightfully so. The soft and chewy rolls come straight out of the oven with just the right amount of butter and garlic and a dusting of Parmesan cheese.

Service

There weren't enough servers to go around, but they worked fast.

Noise Level

The restaurant is always bustling and there's often a line at the door, but it isn't too noisy.

Kid Friendly

Luna is always full of families.
